

CALL FOR APPLICATION TO THE SCHOLARSHIP

"PREMIO LUCIANA CAVALCANTI", N. 6/ 2010

Deadline for the submission of dissertations 20/06/2010

The Chairman

- According to what foreseen by the charter of the Cultural Association "Camera di Giustizia" of Naples
- in line with the scientific extents of the latter,

Decides:

Art. 1

The call concerning the Scholarship "Premio Luciana Cavalcanti" has been launched in order to encourage studies and researches in the field of legal and sociological sciences.

Art. 2

The candidates shall draft a short thesis on the following topic:

The auxiliary of the Judge and of the Public Prosecutor (documentation available on www.cameradigiustizia.com) is considered more and more essential for justice administration purposes. Thus, in Italy there is a boundless utilisation of these professionals. Approximately one million of procedures and trials – both civil and criminal – are concerned per year. Justice administration becomes, therefore, an employer.

The candidate, compared such aspect with other Western legal systems, should consider its importance in the national economy and whether it can be perceived, by the intellectual as well as by the labourer, like a possible risk for the independence of the Judge.

Art. 3

The acceptance of the scholarship will involve:

- a. the award of the sum of € 1,000.00 (one thousand euro) as well as the accommodation for two nights - in a high level hotel structure - for two persons;
- b. the successful candidate shall attend, as a lecturer, the Symposium which will be held at the in Naples, in a single session, on the topic object of the scholarship and in the widest context of the Seminary that will be held in September 2010.

Art.4

The Association reserves itself the right to grant an honourable mention to deserving candidates, to whom will be provided only the accommodation for four nights in the indicated structure, always for two persons.

Art. 5

The application to the Scholarship, including the requested documents, and the thesis must be submitted by AR registered mail no later than 20/06/2010 to the Association "Camera di Giustizia" at the following address :"Associazione Camera di Giustizia" – Ufficio Studi e Ricerche, Via Tarsia n. 23 – 80135 – Napoli.

For applications to be valid the thesis must submitted in:

- three signed copies in Italian (one signed copy in mother tongue for foreign countries applicants)
- and
- one e-version on electronic support (i.e. cd-rom)

In order to be considered, the applications received are required to be dispatched within the deadline; the postmark date will serve as a proof.

Art. 6

For the application the candidates must use the application form which could be found at the premises of the Association "Camera di Giustizia" every day (Mon.-Fri.) from 16h00 to 19h30 or downloaded from the Association's website: www.cameradijustizia.com

Art. 7

The submitted application authorizes the Association "Camera di Giustizia" to publish the thesis – with indication of the name, or pseudonym, of the author – on the Association's website (as well as in the archive containing reports drafted by other participants) and to use it for scientific purposes.

Art. 8

Submitted thesises will not be returned to candidates.

Art. 9

The selection board will be constituted of experts not related with the Association "Camera di Giustizia".

Art. 10

The Commission's judgement on the merits is unappealable. Nonetheless, should the Commission declare the essays below the pass mark, the Association reserves itself the right to assign a recognition. The grant is attributed by the Association's Chairman with a beforehand communication of the award or of the recognition through fax or e-mail.

Art.11

The successful candidate shall provide the Chairman of the Association "Camera di Giustizia" with a declaration of acceptance, with no reserves, also by e-mail.

Art.12

Should not fulfil the above requirements within the requested deadlines, the successful candidate will be considered dropout.

Art. 13

The amount of € 1,000.00 (one thousand euro) will be granted during the aforementioned Symposium.

Naples, 4.11.2009

The Chairman,
Avv. Nicola Cioffi